

Karen Kolbusz

RN, BSN, MBA

Associate Project Director
Healthcare Quality Evaluation
The Joint Commission

Karen Kolbusz is an Associate Project Director in the Division of Healthcare Quality Evaluation at The Joint Commission. Ms. Kolbusz is responsible for research projects associated with the identification and implementation of standardized performance measures for Disease-Specific Care Primary Stroke and Comprehensive Stroke Center Certification, as well as, other Joint Commission measure sets.

A critical care nurse by profession, Ms. Kolbusz has held positions in nursing administration, quality improvement, and research at several hospitals including the VA. She joined The Joint Commission quality measurement team in 2006. Ms. Kolbusz has a BSN, cum laude from Loyola University of Chicago and an MBA from Dominican University, River Forest, IL.