

Lisa DiBlasi Moorehead

EdD, MSN, RN, CENP

Associate Nurse Executive
Accreditation and Certification Operations
The Joint Commission

Lisa DiBlasi Moorehead resides and is licensed as a registered nurse in Alabama. She holds a master's degree in nursing science from the University of Louisville and a doctorate in leadership education from Spalding University.

Dr. DiBlasi Moorehead has been employed by The Joint Commission since 2010. She is currently Associate Nurse Executive. Previously she served as a surveyor in the hospital accreditation program as well as field director for the hospital, critical access hospital, and nursing care center accreditation programs.

Prior to joining The Joint Commission, Dr. DiBlasi Moorehead was responsible for accreditation and regulatory compliance and related performance improvement activities for individual hospitals and health systems. Related areas of responsibility have included adult and pediatric acute care, adult skilled care, behavior health services, women's services, and ambulatory care. She has also held leadership positions in nursing, advanced practice, and education among others during over 35 years in healthcare.

Dr. DiBlasi Moorehead has held certifications in critical care nursing, healthcare quality, as a clinical nurse specialist, and as a certified Joint Commission professional. She currently is certified as an executive in nursing practice.