

Table of Contents

Introduction

CHAPTER 1: Identifying Suicide Risks: An Overview

Joint Commission Requirements

Minimize Risk in the Physical Environment

Screen and Assess Patients for Suicide Risk

Mitigate Risk for Patients Identified as Suicide Risks

Screening Factors

Special Populations

Lethality Factors

Protective Factors

CHAPTER 2: Addressing Environmental Risks in the Health Care Facility to Prevent Suicide

Minimizing Environmental Risks

Recommendations for Locked Inpatient Psychiatric Units

Recommendations for General/Acute Inpatient Settings

Recommendations for Emergency Departments

Recommendations for Residential, Partial Hospitalization, Day Treatment, and Intensive Outpatient Programming Facilities

Reducing Access to Means

Reducing Opportunity

Environmental Risk Assessments

Addressing Identified Risks

Improving Staff Awareness and Support

Tool to Try

Tool 2-1. Environmental Risks for Suicide Assessment Checklist

CHAPTER 3: Keeping the At-Risk Patient Safe

Suicide Screening

Suicide Assessments

Chronological Assessment of Suicide Events (CASE)

Initial Clinical Interventions

Staff Training

Witnessing a Patient Suicide

CHAPTER 4: Transitioning the At-Risk Patient to the Next Phase of Care

Preparing for Discharge

Patient and Family Involvement

Patient and Family Resources

Setting Transitions

Following Up with the Patient

Written Suicide Prevention Policy

Tools to Try

Tool 4-1. Coping Strategies Preferences Form

Tool 4-2. Procedures for Counseling and Follow-Up Care for Individuals at Risk of Suicide After Discharge

Tool 4-3. Suicide Prevention Policy Assessment Checklist

Appendix

Index